

Terms and Conditions

By registering for 21OPCC, attendees, speakers, and sponsors agree to the following terms and conditions as set by Palliative Care Australia (PCA).

- The presenter shall comply with all reasonable directions of PCA, its officers, employees or agents.
- The presenter shall comply with all policies and procedures as reasonably required by PCA.
- PCA may cancel, terminate or postpone a presenter's presentation.
- Where personal Information is disclosed by a presenter or any participant in an online event, PCA shall only use that personal information in accordance with the PCA privacy policy.
- The presenter shall make available copies of any materials used in connection with the presentation at such times as reasonably required by PCA.
- The presenter shall acknowledge that all statements, analysis, opinions or conclusions made in the course of the presentation are their own.
- The presenter shall not defame, disparage or denigrate PCA or others involved in the event in any way.
- The presenter confirms that the presentation is not plagiarised and does not infringe the intellectual property rights or moral rights of any other person.
- The presenter shall behave in a civil and appropriate manner and not unlawfully, bully, sexually harass or discriminate against any person involved in the conference.
- PCA may publicise the presenter as a participant in the conference, and use the presenter's image, logo and titles for that purpose.
- The presenter shall not, as a result of presenting at the PCA online event, hold themselves out as having had their statements, analysis, opinions or conclusions endorsed by PCA.
- The presenter shall indemnify and hold harmless PCA, its employees and agents (in this clause referred to as "those indemnified") from and against any loss (including legal costs and expenses on a solicitor/own client basis) or liability incurred or suffered by any of those indemnified arising from any claim, suit, demand, action or proceeding by any person in respect of any breach of these terms and conditions and any infringement of third-party intellectual property rights by the presenter or the use by PCA of any such material.
- Contact details may be used for the purpose of conducting the conference and will be made available to other attendees, event partners, sponsors and associated parties. To opt out, please contact info@oceanicpallcare.com
- You agree PCA may record, edit, and / or produce presentations and talks and replicate for use on PCA site, OPCC site, and social media.
- You acknowledge and agree PCA will receive no money for a recording, and you enter into this conference with no conflict of interest in relation to your presentation.
- Payment must be made to 21OPCC in accordance with the registration terms and conditions
 - Presenters will be offered the discounted early bird rate prior to conference date.
- Payment in full must be received by PCA in order to grant access to the conference. PCA reserves the right to refuse access to unpaid delegates.

- PCA will not be held liable, nor will a refund be optional if delegates, sponsors, exhibitors or speakers are unable to access, connect, or have difficulty with internet connection, sound or visuals when participating in 21OPCC. PCA will provide information on how to access the digital platform, however delegates are responsible for accessing the Conference using their own Internet service provider and IT infrastructure, and will endeavour to solve any IT issues with advice from their organisations, IT support/suppliers of the devices they are using. Delegates further acknowledge that PHAA is not required to provide IT support services in association with the Conference.
- If, for any reason, outside the control of PCA, the speakers change or the conference be cancelled PCA will endeavour to reschedule where possible. In this instance the delegate will not hold PCA responsible or liable for monies lost or charges incurred.
- Any cancellations must be notified, in writing, to the events team at PCA info@oceanicpallcare.com
- Cancellations received in writing on or before 10th August will incur a $50 admin fee.
- Cancellations received in writing after 2nd September will not be refunded.
- Note: substitutes are welcome. PCA must be advised of substitutes details by Monday 30th August.

Disclaimer

PCA endeavours to provide the most recent information available and the delegate and/or speaker accept that the content and/or the delivery 21OPCC can change beyond the control of PCA. PCA will not take any responsibility for any errors, omissions and changes to the program. The PCA reserves the right to make changes it deems necessary without penalty and no refunds; part refunds or alternative offers shall be made.

EU GDPR – only applicable to EU organisations

In response to the General Data Protection Regulations that affect citizens of the European Union from 01 May 2018, you acknowledge and agree that some of your personal details may have to be provided to Palliative Care Australia (PCA), as owner of this event and/or Delegate Connect as contracted PCO.

- I agree to the statement above.
- I do not agree to my details being provided to the identified organisations for the purposes outlined above. By not agreeing, I understand I may not receive professionally produced documentation. I acknowledge that this excludes my personal information being provided to third parties.

Signed _____

Page Break