Terms and Conditions

Sponsors and Exhibitors

- By returning this booking form, you confirm your acceptance of these terms and conditions.
- All bookings are subject to approval by the 21OPCC Organisers.
- Palliative Care Australia (PCA), as the Conference Organisers reserve the right to alter any aspect of the program without prior notice. Please refer to the Conference website for the latest information on the event.
- PCA will take all diligent care to fulfil the above partnership and exhibition commitments. Partners and exhibitors are responsible for providing all their requirements i.e., logos, promotional material by the due dates.
- While anticipating similar attendance to previous conferences, PCA does not guarantee specific delegate numbers at 21OPCC
- Partners/sponsors and Exhibitors are required to make the necessary payments as per payment terms of the invoice. The submission of an application by a representative from your organisation is regarded as a firm booking.
- PCA will not be liable for expenditure, liability or loss due to; acts of god, terrorism, natural disasters, strikes or shortages, failure of electrical power or other technical issues, lower than anticipated delegate numbers.
- In the event the sponsor / exhibitor cancels their booking before 30 May 2021, PCA reserves the right to retain all monies until such time the package is resold.
- Any booking cancelled after May 30 2021, will not be refunded.
- PCA may need to forward your full name, position, and organisation to a limited number of third-party suppliers eg. designers, printers, web developers, PCO representative Delegate Connect etc. This is to facilitate your support of the Conference and ensure you are identified as a sponsor or exhibitor of this event and therefore receive all entitlements associated with your sponsorship.
- Sponsors eligible to provide electronic marketing and materials must design and submit by deadlines outlined by PCA. It is the responsibility of the sponsor to provide logos and media links for the commencement of advertising.
